Description: This almost-new semi-detached house in the sought-after residential area of Puig de Ros combines modern design, high-quality finishes and a comfortable living concept. Bright, spacious interiors and a low-maintenance outdoor area make it an ideal home for families, couples and anyone looking to enjoy the Mediterranean lifestyle.

The open-plan ground floor features a light-filled living and dining area with a modern kitchen, cooking island and direct access to the terrace and private pool. A pantry/storage room and a guest WC complete this level.

Upstairs, there are three bedrooms and two modern bathrooms, including an en-suite in the master bedroom.

The spacious terrace and private pool provide the perfect setting for relaxing and outdoor living, while the property also offers parking for two to three cars.

The property is sold unfurnished. The photographs were taken in 2023. The furnishings and décor shown have been AI-generated and are for illustrative purposes only.

Puig de Ros is a popular and tranquil residential area on the south coast of Mallorca. An exclusive beach club and a golf course are located in the immediate vicinity.
